

College & Career Readiness

A MONTHLY NEWSLETTER THAT HIGHLIGHTS COLLEGE MAJORS, TRADES, AND THE MILITARY

College Major

PSYCHOLOGY

The science of behavior and mind. Psychology is a multi-faceted discipline and includes many sub-fields of study.

Trades

HVAC, PLUMBING, & ELECTRICAL

Explore the trades. A journey into a successful career in HVAC, plumbing, and/or electrical.

Military

ARMY

Loyalty, Duty, Respect, Selfless Service, Honor, Integrity, and Personal Courage. Soldiers learn these values during Basic Combat Training.

NEED HELP WITH STUDYING?

Whether you struggle in Language Arts, Math, or taking tests there are tips that could help.

Check out: How to Study Website

College Major: Psychology

If you enjoy helping individuals or families going through problems, listening to them, interviewing/testing, analyzing and collecting data, being social and creative, researching human and animal behavior, then psychology is a career path for you! Here are some helpful web sites about Psychology:

Major: Psychology

Before choosing Psychology as a major

14 Career Options for Psychology Majors

Trades: HVAC, Plumbing, and Electrical

Careers in trades, such as Heating, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning (HVAC), are in high demand! Gaining a certificate in a trade would not take nearly as long and as expensive as a traditional four year college. Consider these trades and check out these websites:

The difference between Electrical, Plumbing, and HVAC career

Information about Plumbing

Information about electrician training schools in Maryland

Military: Army

The U.S. Army offers a young person the opportunity to immediately train and work in an in-demand career field while earning a competitive salary and fringe benefits, including healthcare and money for college.

Job opportunities in the Army

Information about the Army Corps of Engineers

Being a Musician in the Army

